

BC Capacity Initiative: Call For Proposals 2020-2021

November 1, 2019

The BC Capacity Initiative (BCCI) is now accepting applications for funding in the 2020-2021 fiscal year.

BCCI funding is available for projects that will advance First Nations' readiness and capacity to negotiate treaties, agreements and other constructive arrangements relating to Section 35 rights and to support their overall plan for self-determination.

Before submitting an application, please review the attached BCCI Application Guidelines (also available at http://bcccapacity.org/documents_list.aspx) for information on proposal eligibility and evaluation criteria.

The BCCI Application form (PAW 5702745) can be downloaded from http://bcccapacity.org/documents_list.aspx, under the 2020-2021 section. Deadline to submit an application is Friday, November 29, 2019. Please email your completed application and all required supporting documents to aadnc.BCMail.aandc@canada.ca. You should receive an immediate automated email confirmation after submission.

For current BCCI funding recipients, if there is a possibility that your 2019-2020 BCCI funding may not be expended by the end of this fiscal year, please contact the office to discuss potential carry-over of unexpended fund before submitting a new application for the next fiscal year.

For new applicants, if you have questions about whether the proposed project meets BCCI guidelines or need further assistance, please contact:

Alice Wong, BCCI Coordinator
